Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) (First Amendment) Regulations, 1978

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 read with Section 124(1) & (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Mormugao Port Trust, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966, namely:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) (First Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the date on which they have been effective in the case of Central Government servants.

2. Insert the following as second proviso after the note in the first proviso of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 78 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the said Regulations) namely:—

"Provided that an employee who applied for commutation of pension within one year of the date of his retirement on superannuation will not be subject to medical examination. Application for commutation of pension under this proviso will be made after the date of retirement and the commutation shall become absolute, that is, the retired employee shall become entitled to receive the commuted value on the date on which his application is received by the Head of Department. An employee who has applied for commutation of pension under this proviso, will have no option to withdraw his application."

2. Substitute the following for the existing regulations 12 and 13 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Commencement of qualifying service.

12. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, qualifying service of an employee shall commence from the date he takes charge of the post to which he is first appointed either substantively or in an officiating or temporary capacity.

Provided that officiating or temporary service is followed without interruption by substantive appointment in the same or another service or post:

Provided further that service rendered before attaining the age of eighteen years shall not count, except for compensation gratuity".

"Conditions subject to which service qualifies.

13. (1) The service of an employee shall not qualify unless he is substantively appointed to the services of the Board and his duties and pay are regulated by the Board, or under conditions determined by the Board.

(2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), the expression "service" means service under the Board and paid by the Board from the Revenue administered by the Board but does not include service in a non-pensionable establishment unless such service is treated as qualifying service by the Board.

(3) In the case of an employee belonging to Central Government or a State Government, who is permanently transferred to the service of the Board, the continuous service rendered under the Central Government or State Government in an officiating or temporary capacity, if any, followed without interruption by substantive appointment, or the continuous service rendered under that Government in an officiating or temporary capacity, as the case may be, shall qualify subject to the conditions determined by the Board.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-regulation shall apply to any such employee who is appointed otherwise than by deputation to the service of the Board.

Explanation:—The service rendered to the predecessor administrations will count in full as service under the Board subject to such service being continuous and without any break or interruption, and no gratuity having been paid for the period by the W.I.P. or Southern Railway and if paid, subject to the refund and to the extent of refund of any benefits received in the form of employees' contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund, including Special Contribution".

3. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 10 of the said Regulations, under the heading "Misconduct or Inefficiency, namely:—

"Compassionate Allowance.

10. (1) An employee who is dismissed or removed from service shall forfeit his pension and gratuity.

Provided that the authority competent to dismiss or remove him from service may, if the case is deserving of special consideration, recommend compassionate allowance for the sanction of the competent authority, not exceeding two-thirds of pension, or gratuity or both which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on compensation pension.

(2) A compassionate allowance sanctioned under the proviso to sub-regulation (1) shall not be less than the limit specified in sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 46.

(3) The Compassionate Allowance granted under this regulation shall be treated as pension for purpose of commutation under these Regulations."

4. Substitute the following regulation 47 for the existing regulation 47 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"47. (1)(a) An employee, who has completed five years, qualifying service and has become eligible for service gratuity or pension under Regulation 46, shall or his retirement, be granted death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to one-fourth of his emoluments for each completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 16½ times the emoluments.

(b) If an employee dies while in service after completing five years' qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to 12 times of his emoluments or the amount as determined under clause (a) whichever is higher and it shall be paid to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47 A.

Provided that the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under this regulations in no case, exceed thirty thousand rupees.

(2) If an employee who has become eligible, for a service gratuity or pension, dies within five years from the date of his retirement from service including compulsory retirement as a penalty and the sums actually received by him at the time of his death on account of such gratuity or pension including ad-hoc increase, if any together with the death-cum-retirement gratuity admissible under sub-regulation (1) and the commuted value of any portion of pension commuted by him are less than the amount equal to 12 times of his emoluments, a residuary gratuity equal to the deficiency may be granted to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47 A.

(3)(a) If an employee dies in the first year of his qualifying service, a death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to two times of his emoluments at the time of his death shall be paid to his family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47A.

(b) If an employee dies after completion of one year of qualifying service but before completing five years of qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to six times of his emoluments.

(4) The emoluments for the purpose of gratuity admissible under this regulation shall be subject to a maximum of two thousand five hundred rupees per mensem, and shall be reckoned in accordance with Regulation 49.

Provided that if the emoluments of an employee have been reduced during the last three years of his service otherwise than as penalty, average emoluments as referred to in regulation 50 may, at the discretion of the pension sanctioning authority, be treated as emoluments.

(5) For the purpose of this regulation and regulations 47A and 48, family in relation to an employee means:—

- i) Wife or wives including judicially separated wife or wives in the case of a male employee.
- ii) husband including judicially separated husband in the case of a female employee.
- iii) Sons including step sons and adopted sons.
- iv) Unmarried daughters including step daughters and adopted daughters.
- v) father
- vi) mother
- vii) brothers below the age of eighteen years including step brothers.
- viii) unmarried sisters and widowed sisters including step sisters.
- ix) married daughters, and
- x) children of pre-deceased son."

5. Insert the following new regulation 47A with a title "Persons to whom Gratuity is Payable" below the existing regulation 47 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Pension to whom gratuity is payable.

47A (1) (a) The gratuity payable under this regulation shall be paid to the person on whom the right to receive the gratuity is conferred by means of a nomination under regulation 48.

(b) If there is no such nomination or if the nomination does not subsist, the gratuity shall be paid in the manner indicated below:—

i) If there are one or more surviving members of the family as in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 48, to all such members in equal shares:

ii) if there are no such surviving members of the family as in sub-clauses (i) above, but there are one or more members as in Clauses (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix) and (x) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 48, to all such members in equal shares.

(2) If an employee dies after retirement without receiving the gratuity admissible under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47, the gratuity shall be disbursed to the family in the manner indicated in sub-regulation (1).

(3) The right of a female member of the family, or that of a brother of an employee who dies while in service or after retirement to receive the share of gratuity shall not be affected if the female member marries or re-marries, or the brother attains the age of eighteen years, after the death of the employee and before receiving her or his share of the gratuity.

(4) Where gratuity is granted under regulation 47 to a minor member of the family of the deceased employee it shall be payable to the guardian on behalf of the minor.

(5) Where an employee dies while in service, or after retirement without receiving the amount of gratuity and leaves behind no family, and

(a) has no nomination; or

(b) the nomination made by him does not subsist, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable in respect of such employee under regulation 47 shall lapse to the Board."

6. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 48 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"48 (1) An employee shall on his initial confirmation in a service or post, make a nomination in one of the forms A to D, as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under regulation 47.

Provided that if at the times of making the nomination—

i) the employee has a family the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family or

ii) the employee has no family, the nomination may be made in favour of a person or persons, or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not.

(2) If an employee nominates more than one person under sub-regulation (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount of share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the entire amount of gratuity.

(3) An employee may provide in a nomination—

i) that in respect of any specified nominee who predeceases the employee, or who dies after the death of the employee but before receiving the payment of gratuity, right conferred on the nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination.

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the employee has a family consisting of more than one member, the person so specified shall not be a person other than a member of his family.

Provided further that where an employee has only one member in his family, and nomination has been made in his favour, it is open to the employee to nominate alternate nominee or nominees in favour of any person or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not;

ii) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of the contingency provided therein.

(4) The nomination made by an employee who has no family at the time of making it, or the nomination made by an employee under the second proviso to clause (i) of sub-regulation (3) where he has only one member in his family shall become invalid in the event of the employee subsequently acquiring a family, or an additional member in the family as the case may be.

(5) An employee may, at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the authority mentioned in sub-regulation 7:

Provided that he shall, alongwith such notice, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with this regulation.

(6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (i) of sub-regulation (3) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (ii) of that sub-regulation, the employee shall send to the authority mentioned in sub-regulation (7) a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with this regulation.

(7) (a) Every nomination made (including every notice of cancellation, if any, given) by an employee under this regulation, shall be sent to the Accounts Officer through the Head of Department.

(b) The Accounts Officer shall immediately on receipt of the nomination referred to in sub-clause (a), countersign, it indicating the date of receipt and keep it under his custody.

(c)(i) The Accounts officer may authorise his subordinate officers to countersign the nomination forms.

(ii) Suitable entry regarding receipt of nomination shall be made in the service book of the employee by the H.O.D. before it is sent to the Accounts Officer.

(8) Every nomination made, and every notice of cancellation given, by an employee shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect from the date on which it is received by the Accounts Officer.

7. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 46 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"46. (1) In the case of an employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of these regulations before completing qualifying service of ten years, the amount of service gratuity shall be the appropriate amount as set out in part (a) of the revised table I appended to these Regulations.

(2)(a) In the case of an employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of these regulations after completing qualifying service of not less than ten years, the amount of pension shall be the appropriate amount as set out in part (b) of the revised table I referred above.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), the amount of invalid pension shall not be less than the amount of family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 53.

(3) In case an employee retires on superannuation, retiring, invalid or compensation pension on or after 1st March, 1970, and if the amount of pension calculated in accordance with the regulations in force at the time of his retirement, is less than forty rupees per month the same shall be raised to forty rupees per mensem".

8. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 50 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"50. Average emoluments shall be determined with reference to the emoluments drawn by him during the last ten months of his service."

9. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 53 of the said regulations, namely:—

"53. (1) The amount of family pension shall be determined in accordance with the Table below:

TABLE
Pay of the employee	Amount of monthly family pension
i) Below Rs. 400	30% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 60 and a maximum of Rs. 100/-.
ii) Rs. 400 and above but below Rs. 1200	15% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 100/- and a maximum of Rs. 160.
iii) Rs. 1200 and above	12% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 160 and a maximum of Rs. 250/-.

(2) "Pay" for the purpose of this regulation means the emoluments as specified in regulation 49.

Provided that in a case in which average emoluments as referred to in regulation 50 are treated as emoluments for the purpose of Death-cum-Retirement Gratuity referred to in regulation 47, such average emoluments shall be treated as pay.

(3) In case an employee dies on or after 28th Feb., 1970, and his family is eligible for pension and if the amount of family pension calculated in accordance with the regulations in force at the time of his death, is less than forty rupees per mensem, the same shall be raised to forty rupees per mensem.

(4) The amount of family pension shall be fixed at monthly rates and be expressed in whole rupees and where the family pension contains a fraction of a rupee, it shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee.

Provided that in no case a family pension in excess of the maximum prescribed under this regulation shall be allowed.

(5)(a)(i) Where an employee, who is not governed by the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923), dies while in service after having rendered not less than seven years continuous service, the rate of family pension payable to the family shall be equal to 50 per cent of the pay last drawn or twice the family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1), whichever is less, and the amount so admissible shall be payable from the date following the date of death of the employee for a period of seven years, or for a period upto the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the age of 65 years had he survived, whichever is less.

(ii) In the event of death of an employee after retirement, the family pension as determined under sub-clause (i) shall be payable for a period of seven years, or for a period upto the date on which the retired deceased employee would have attained the age of 65 years had he survived, whichever is less.

Provided that in no case the amount of family pension determined under this clause shall exceed the pension sanctioned on retirement from service.

Provided further that where the amount of pension sanctioned on retirement is less than the amount of family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1) the amount of family pension determined under this clause shall be limited to the amount of family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1).

Explanation: 1—For the purpose of this sub-clause "pension sanctioned on retirement" includes the part of the pension which the retired employee may have commuted before death.

(b)(i) Where an employee who is governed by the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923), dies while in service after seven years continuous service, the rate of family pension payable to the family shall be equal to 50 per cent of the pay last drawn or one and half times the family pension admissible under sub-regulations (1), whichever is less.

(ii) The family pension so determined under sub-clause (i) shall be payable for the period mentioned in clause (a).

Provided that where a compensation is not payable under the aforesaid Act, the Head of Department shall furnish a certificate to the Accounts Officer to the effect that the family of the deceased employee is not eligible for any compensation under the aforesaid Act and the family shall be paid family pension on the scale, and for the period, mentioned in clause (a).

(c) After the expiry of the period referred to in clause (a) the family, in receipt of family pension under that clause or clause (b) shall be entitled to family pension at the rate admissible under sub-regulation (1)".

10. Insert the following as clause (g) after the existing note below clause (f) to Regulation 49 in section VII of the said Regulations, namely:—

(g) In respect of class III and IV employees retiring from service on or after 1-1-1969 the term "emoluments" means the pay which the employee was receiving immediately before retirement, and shall include:—

(i) Pay, other than special pay granted in view of his personal qualifications, which has been sanctioned for a post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity, or to which he is entitled by reasons of his position in a cadre and Dearness Allowance/Additional Dearness Allowance as admissible from time to time, piece rates earning wherever applicable and city Compensatory Allowance (as approved vide B.R. 473 dated 16-11-1973) and

(ii) technical pay, special pay and personal pay, and

(iii) any other emoluments which may specially be classed as pay by the appropriate authority."
